

I strongly urge you to keep the Telephone Consumer Protection Act. It is an invasion of my home and privacy to have solicitations on my telephone. My home telephone is for my personal use, not for businesses to profit from.